Working with the text

Answer the following questions.

Question 1. Why was the king advised to go to magicians?

In answer to the first question, in order to decide the right time for doing something urgent one must have to look into the future. Since only magician could do that, the king was advised to go to magicians.

Question 2. In answer to the second question, whose advice did the people say would be important to the king?

In answers to the second question, some said that the people most necessary to the king were his councilors, others said, the priests. A few others chose the doctors. And yet others said that soldiers were the most necessary.

Question 3. What suggestions were made in answer to the third question?

In answer to the third question, some said science will be most important. Others suggested fighting, and some said religious worship.

Question 4. Did the wise men win the reward? If not, why not?

No, the wise men did not win the reward. The king got different for all the three questions he asked. He was not satisfied with any of them.

Question 5. How did the king and the hermit help the wounded man?

The king and the hermit helped the wounded man by providing him the shelter and protected from the army. The king washed and covered the wound of the man with his handkerchief, but the blood would not stop flowing. The king re-dressed the wound until it stopped bleeding. They took him to hut for taking rest and king also gave him fresh water after being relaxed.

Question 6. (i) Who was the bearded man?

(ii) Why did he ask for the king's forgiveness?

- (i) Bearded man was the enemy of the king who swore to revenge him for seizing of his property and putting his brother to death.
- (ii) He asked for the king's forgiveness as the king had saved his life. He came there for taking revenge from the king but instead the king helped him to get better.

Question 7. The king forgave the bearded man. What did he do to show his forgiveness?

The king showed his forgiveness by sending his servants and his own doctor to look after him, and he promised to give back the wounded man his property.

Questions 8. What were the hermit's answers to the three questions? Write each answer separately. Which answer do you like most, and why?

In answer to king's first question, the hermit said that there is only one important time 'Now'. It is the only time when you have power to act. In answer to king's second question, the hermit said that the most important person is the one with whom we are at the present. In response to king's second question, the hermit answered that the most important thing to do is to do that person good. I like the answer of the first question the most because time has the supreme power. It can take you to height if you do something good and can also make you fall on ground if you won; t act in presence. One should live and act according to present.

POEM 1 THE SQUIRREL

Working with the Poem

Question 1. Why does the poet say the squirrel “wore a question mark for tail”? Draw a squirrel, or find a picture of a squirrel sitting on the ground. How would you describe its tail?

The poet says so because the bushy tail of a squirrel sitting on the ground is curled back on its body in a curved shape that looks very similar to the punctuation mark at the end of an interrogative sentence. I would describe it as a furry and bushy cloth worn on its back that seems to ask you the question - what?

Question 2. Do we usually say that an animal ‘wears’ a tail? What do we say? (Think: Does an animal wear a coat? Consult a dictionary if you like, and find out how ‘wear’ is used in different ways.)

No, usually we do not say that an animal ‘wears’ a tail. We usually say that animal 'has' a tail. (Wear also means to carry or to hold something on your body, like a cloth or a smile or a piece of jewellery or a perfume. The hair on the body can be arranged to be carried in different ways like a pony or a knot or pleated and that can be said as how you wear your hair.)

Question 3. “He liked to tease and play”. Who is teasing whom? How?

The squirrel is a naughty playful animal. It loves to be chased, by other squirrels and kids as well. When poet and his friends ran around the tree on which the squirrel is sitting, it went the other way teasing them and playing with them.
